

Challenge Tour Regulations 2021

I. Challenge Tour 2021: Rules of Attribution of Invites for Pro's

- Only professionals with the Belgian Nationality or in process of naturalization are eligible.
- Players have to hand in their calendar & objectives at the beginning of the year.
- If during the season 2021, an amateur within the top 150 of the WAGR becomes professional, he could immediately receive invites if there are invites available.
- Players outside the top 150 of the WAGR must play the Qualifying School in order to get a category on one of the professional tours. Exceptions can be made depending on when the amateur turns professional and how many invites are available.
- Minimum required category is Cat 7 on a Satellite Tour (Alps Tour/Pro Golf Tour) or Cat 17 on Challenge Tour.
- Maximum of 3 years support on invites. This can be extended with 2 more years if positive progress is made after a yearly evaluation.

According to the number of received invites for Challenge Tour events outside Belgium, on basis of the players' categories 2021 and their objectives, the attribution order will be:

- a) Players Withholding a Challenge Tour Category, order by category
- b) Players Withholding an Alps Tour or a Pro Golf Tour Category, order by category
- c) Players turning professional in 2021

In case a player that has received an invite for a tournament, can enter the tournament by his category, the invite will go to the 1st reserve for the invite, etc.

Note 1: Any player that accepts invites for 2021 must play the B-NL Challenge Trophy 2021 and the Omnium of Belgium (exempted if playing an important tournament for the ranking of their main Tour).
